CHARACTER: People's Party politician from Styria (P).
Appraisal of Content: 2.

1. The New Austrian Society (Neue Oesterreichische Gesellschaft) which was formed by the reformist element within the Austrian People's Party (OeVP) was largely inactive in mid-November 1959. This group, one of whose leaders is Governor Josef Krainer of Styria, has been experiencing difficulty in obtaining the support of OeVP leaders in all the provinces and in arriving at a unified plan of action.
2. The primary aim of the reform group remains the removal of Alfred Maleta as Party Secretary. Its secondary aim is to remove Chancellor Julius Raab as leader of the party and to take away from Minister of Defense Ferdinand Graf his function as OeVP propaganda director. The group does not, however, wish to remove either Raab or Graf from their government offices.
3. Helmut Schuster, formerly with the now defunct Oesterreichische Industrie- und Bergbauverwaltungs-Gesellschaft, a journalist and an influential member of the OeVP Peasants' League, is acting as Governor Krainer's agent in Vienna in connection with the activities of the New Austrian Society.
